

European Taxidermy Federation Newsletter January 2010

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the ETF Board, I would like to wish you all a happy new year, and peace and good fortune to all of you in 2010 and beyond.

Update

Since our last communication we now have the new proposed ETF Statutes which are attached. Please read these very carefully as these proposals will be put to the next general meeting which will take place in April in Longerone, Italy, at the European Taxidermy Competition. As you know this competition will take place between Monday 26th April and Sunday 2nd of May 2010. The General meeting will take place on Thursday 29th April between 2pm and 6pm, information relating to the venue for this meeting and the provisional agenda will be sent to you all in February.

Comments and/or proposals can be sent to Christoph Meier to be included at the presentation at the General meeting. Christoph's e-mail address is christoph.meier@bs.ch

For further information about this competition and for a competition brochure contact – Iginio Bressan, e-mail: iginio.bressan@gmail.com or visit the web site: www.atitassidermia.it - www.eurotaxidermy.eu

This competition is the ultimate taxidermy competition in Europe and is a good way of meeting friend old and new in a stimulating atmosphere, so please try to attend.

Membership

The Board are pleased to announce that Spain have joined the ETF so welcome to our Spanish delegates whose details are on the contact list. The ETF also have 2 new individual members from Great Britain, Steve Newcombe and Robert Marshall, so welcome to them too

The Treasurer would be grateful if member countries could inform him of how many members they have to enable the Treasurer to make up the annual invoices for membership subscription, attached is the current list of subscriptions. Please send this information as soon as possible and within 2 weeks of receipt of this newsletter.

Also attached is an update e-mail contact list. Please check your address and let me know of any corrections.

And Finally

It just remains for me to say that I look forward to meeting you all again in Longerone.

Duncan A. Ferguson

ETF Secretary.
